Policy for Candidates withdrawing from an ABDO Examination

- A candidate who does not attend an examination due to exceptional circumstances, can apply for a partial refund, unless they fall into the categories outlined below for which no refund will be provided.
- If a candidate's refund request is successful, the candidate will be expected to re-apply for the next examination session via the online booking system and enclosing the appropriate examination fee.
- A cancelled entry and examination fee already paid cannot be transferred from one session to the next.
- All refund requests must be made in writing as soon as possible and included with the "Request to Withdraw from an Examination(s) form".
- Exceptional Personal Circumstances, Illness or injury - a refund may be awarded for a withdrawal on compassionate grounds, such as bereavement or personal trauma (documentary evidence must be provided with the withdrawal form, i.e. medical certificate).

Cancellation Fees:

More than 42 days before exam	£25 per unit
29-42 days before exam	25% of exam fee per unit
15-28 days before exam	50% of exam fee per unit
8-14 days before exam	100% of exam fee per unit
Within 7 days of exam	100% of exam fee per unit

Reasons for a Withdrawal for which no refund will be made:

- Candidate not ready for examination;
- Candidate withdrawn by Training Institute;
- Candidates' PQP Folder not submitted by deadline;
- Submitted PQP folder incomplete resulting in removal from exam;
- Transport issue (Candidates sitting a morning practical examination are advised to travel the day before);
- Candidate on holiday on date of examination.

In the event a candidate needs to withdraw on the day of their Practical Examination, candidates should email the following contacts:
